

“Rekindle Shabbat helps my blended family learn about the meaning of Shabbat and carry on the tradition in an easy way. Having a buddy family also keeps us accountable to celebrating consistently.”
 Sarah Tugender, Danvers

Create warm and wonderful Jewish memories in the comfort of your home with family and friends when you participate in Rekindle Shabbat, a child-oriented, family-centered program

Pj Library® REKINDLE SHABBAT

Since 1997, more than 1,465 North Shore families, including more than 4,325 individuals from Jewish and interfaith families, have experienced the magic of REKINDLE SHABBAT.

Receive everything you need to REKINDLE SHABBAT in the comfort of your home:

- Kosher, catered meals three times a year to enjoy at home with family and friends. Meals are prepared at Levine’s Kosher Market in Peabody and include: grape juice, challah, salad, choice of chicken, chicken nuggets, or vegetarian, vegetable, side dish, and dessert!
- Fully stocked Shabbat kit, including: box of Shabbat candles; Kiddush cup; candle sticks; challah cover; tzedakah box, Shabbat blessings and booklet, and more
- Interactive online video for parents new to REKINDLE SHABBAT to teach about several Shabbat rituals including: giving tzedakah and the blessing for candles, Kiddush, challah and children
- Social and spiritual connections to the larger Jewish community

FREE!

REKINDLE SHABBAT dinners take place in your home, at a time that is convenient for you, on the following dates:

- Friday, January 11, 2019
- Friday, March 8, 2019
- Friday, May 3, 2019

A REKINDLE SHABBAT training online video is available to families who register for the program.

Personal or group trainings are available by request.

REKINDLE SHABBAT is free and open to Jewish and interfaith families, with children teens and younger, who live in, or are affiliated with a Jewish organization, in any of the 23 cities and towns in the Foundation’s service area. Others may pay to participate.

All are welcome.
