

Holocaust Legacy Fellows is funded and co-directed by Todd Ruderman and Jody Kipnis and implemented in partnership with Lappin Foundation.

Lappin Foundation

Enhancing Jewish Identity across Generations

LappinFoundation.org

Preserving and perpetuating the memory and lessons of the Holocaust for future generations

Goal of Program

To educate Jewish teens about the Holocaust as a watershed event in Jewish history and in the history of humanity and to instill in teens responsibility to actively preserve and perpetuate the memory and lessons of the Holocaust for future generations.

Participation in Holocaust Legacy Fellows in the pilot year (2018-2019) is by invitation and will include 14 Jewish teens who:

- Are juniors in high school as of September 1, 2018
- Participated in an organized teen Israel experience
- Must be able to attend all required pre and post-trip meetings
- Have not previously participated in an organized Holocaust educational trip to Poland

Dates of Trip to Berlin and Poland: August 4-13, 2019

The trip will be staffed by Deborah Coltin, Jody Kipnis, Todd Ruderman, two adult counselors, an experienced Holocaust tour guide, and a security guard.

Highlights of the itinerary of the trip to Berlin and Poland include:

- Tour of Berlin's Jewish community
- Jewish heritage tour of Warsaw, Poland
- Tour remains of the Warsaw Ghetto
- Memorial visit to Auschwitz-Birkenau Death Camp
- Kabbalat Shabbat with local Jewish community
- Tour Jewish Quarter in Krakow, Poland
- Memorial visit to Majdanek Death Camp
- Memorial services
- Meet Holocaust survivors

Cost

The trip to Berlin and Poland and pre and post-trip meetings are fully subsidized, thanks to generous funding from Todd Ruderman and Jody Kipnis.

A $500 refundable deposit is required upon teen's acceptance to the program. The deposit will be refunded upon completion of program requirements.

For more information about Holocaust Legacy Fellows, email Jody Kipnis, Co-Director, at jody@HolocaustLegacyFellows.org

Program Requirements

- Participate on the trip to Berlin and Poland
- Attend five pre-trip meetings and one post-trip meeting
- Complete two pre-trip assignments
- Keep a journal during the trip
- Write a post-trip reflection of the experience
- Prepare a post-trip presentation on the memory and lessons of the Holocaust
- Do at least one presentation about your experience at school or in the community
- Participate in the Holocaust Remembrance Service on January 26 or 27, 2020 on the North Shore
- Pledge to transmit the lessons and memories of the Holocaust to future generations
- Serve on Lappin Foundation's Holocaust Speakers Bureau

We can't change the past, but the present is in our hands. ~ Jody Kipnis